UNSOLICITED TESTIMONIALS.

From W. E. CHAPMAN, Esq.—Imre Kiralfy, Limited, Olympia.—“Please forward us an extra complete set of cuttings. I have discontinued one of the Agencies in your favour on account of the more thorough manner in which your work has been performed.”

From the Rev. Dr. WILLIAM LEE.—“After several years' experience, I have much pleasure in expressing my satisfaction at the prompt way in which you search out long forgotten and unindexed Journals, &c. Your translations show the employment of educated linguists, and the type writing is of a character which redeems that invention from the reproach that has been cast at work done by so many typists.

From W. S. CAINE, Esq., M.P.—“I am much obliged to you for your constant kind attention. It is a matter of pride to me that I was one of the earliest subscribers to a firm which has become one of the most important institutions in the country. Public men are under a great debt of gratitude to you, and some day we must erect you a monument.”

The Metropolitan Police have subscribed consecutively for the last 8 years.

Mons Zola,
Sir

May we send you
all important notices of yourself & reviews of your books from English papers. We enclose terms & await favor of reply.

Faithfully Yours

Romeike & Curtice
