Texte de la lettre Boston Mass, U. S. A.
Oct. 1st 1898

Dear M. Zola,

I want you to see that there is at least one faithful, honest Christian in England who has the courage to speak the truth about these un-christian wars of aggression. I do wish you would write and than sir Steffer Sanson.

I am disgusted at the way they have been treating you lately, in France. Nobody on earth could make me believe that you were at fault.

But you knew before that there is no such thing as "justice" in the world in the law, in the church, or anywhere else.

Anyone who tries to do right must expect to pay a severe penalty (as Mark Twain so truly says, "Be good, but you will be lonesome !"). But it will pay in the end M. Zola.

_ Do not doubt it ! Even if they steal every dollar you possess I would rather be in your shoes that theirs.

Always yours most sincerely.

Dear Mr. Zola,

I want you to see that there is at least one faithful, dovish Christian in England who has the courage to speak the truth about these un-Christian wars of aggression.
I do wish you would write and thank Sir Wilfrid Lawson.

- I am disgusted at the way they have been treating you lately, in France.

Nobody on earth could make me believe that you were at fault.
But you knew before that there is no such thing
as "justice" in the world
— in the law, in the Church, or anywhere else.

Any one who tries to do right must expect to pay a severe penalty. (As Mark Twain so truly says,
"Be good, but you will be lonesome"!) — Submit it will pay in the end

th. Zola - do not doubt it! Even if they steal every dollar you possess
I would rather be in your shoes than theirs.

Always yours most
sincerely L. E. H.
