25 Dennis Rd. Earthourse, England. To M. Zola. 20 ug ugg 90 90 Sin. The last note? sent you (for which I must apolo give as also for this) has written lender the influence of great distress caused me by the in iguitous berdiet of the Renne's loud martial: for which leasen I hust you will fagine both its form and the better they hits against your country which it Expressed. I have for many years been a Careful reacher of your breks Which tadmine greatly and ? believe in common with west of my country men it was the have stand made by you an behalf of the martyred laptain which led we to take to cleep an interest in the case.

Although your work is in vine ways unlike that of our our great probelist Marles Dichens you have one is two characteristics in commen, you beth pul real work into your books, They are not The Idle famies of wille men but the roull of laboured determination to get at and to deficit the truth, While Beikens prosessed a being broad human well appreciated by our people, you have a semarkable facility in deputing masses of men in mone ment. You have both achieved in mortality, for as long as the two languages are spoken on earth Zala and Bukens will be read By the way that cenious M. Luesney de Beaurepaire has the escal appearence of a half hitted character in one of Dukens nouels as pourtraged by the Mustrater . Leefer to "him bick" in # Babid Copperfield"

With regard to these Severals public openion has -Put in every honest hand a To lash the secundrels haked through the world" Mr Robert Blatch ford the editor of the "Clarier" and a great admirer of your work says that When who wear such trousers (as the generals) are capable of anything. I am Simply a working man hat I feel jurliqued in Juying that you have encleared yourself to the English nation by your noble conduct. As a long time admin of yours I have been froud of you and as a Socialist I am more than frond of my comacles the Socialists of Flance Some time ago an American write a book defecting a Society the members of which undertook never to be or to commit a desh mourable action, Such a Society is needed now. an Interna tion at Freemasoury. The members of Which Should undertaker never to atter a falsehood or to do an lenjust thene, The ald ideals of Mistianity are dying out a new ideal is need to heep man kind from the moral lot which alas! too prevalent. Henomable men it is true hill always be hencurable, but flesh is weak and no man's sectitude is to any the werse for some suffert and Itim whatien, In Inter nation al League of Honour with your self. Me Lahori and lot Piguart as patiens would at this humans he an longualified Junes in the English speaking would and hould do in mense good. yso respectfully, Geo & Meck.

P.S. Throw that in complling your forts your are glad of all the infarmation you can obtain Hat any time I can suffly you with any I shall be most happy to do so. It letter on post card addressed.

Will always fund he. I people in France say the clemen station here against the bendies at Rennes was owing only to hers paper agitation you may safely contradict them. Hot if our army or havy had suffered clifeat could there have been more widespread sorrow and distress among all classes. I saw strong wen who classes. I saw strong wen who classes. I saw strong wen who is could hardly speak from smo thou tion. Men sat down and could do ho more week, some chank glass after glass of strong spents in sitence. others clusted the Generals and Judges in conneusared terms, I heard a german Jobbing and anothers trying to comfort him. "Hever mind "he said The Twith must come," Others said I What a terrible flow for M. Lola!" What crimes have not her committed In the name of the Papacy! Farm not a Pretestant. I am an Aguesta hat I was reared a Protestant and fam very glad those of that faith in France have cuted so well in this matter, If there had heen no St Barthalemen massec ore, no revocation of the Educt of hantes. no Bragonnades. no Diège of Rabelle how different might France have hem today? But depreied of so much nable blood how impowerished the is! We some times cabil at the Puritan ism four people. but give us that and cleanness latter than the filting liter ature of the Boule benils and the demonalization of the Jeneral Staff. 9814
