Dear Sin.

Mis very probable that my name may not be known to go, although in Eugland I have my an modert total and an our legiming to be remething y a vettram as a money letters. But I am moved to address you by the profound interest of home long total in the case of Captain Drappers. A few muchos ago, an article appeared in the Strand harparture in which face similes of the inciminating better attributed to but implimate of prince are printed air lays and with the face camiles of letters undouttably wieter by him. In lively your at least I have made a study of what I may wenter to describe as the movel physiogramy of hand muting, and I am most positively foremass that there count to the time went, and count there were mutter by the same hand. I remained to write to the Holt Schooling the author of the examples had been submitted for examination was of the same of principe. These timbre experts are man of county notionaling and were superitely connected. Their wester's unaminous.

The cose of the unhappy Captain Drayfor is not one which concerns There alone. The civilised world is the tribund before which hair colors, and frame herself is aide by side with him as the har of Juties.

ha mouth from our I return to huston, where it is my intent to ential the attention of literary England in this cause. I propose to entirely by means of the acyclic. The real and the attention wintings and by site, in a highly magnified from. I propose to all the attention of the from of Sandan to the question, and to invole all men of another on questions of hundred to offen a condid opinion.

hy apology for addressing you is easily expressed. As a pelly office in that good army of letters in which you are a commander I desire to fight more your flog in this course.

my purpose, after this long preamber, is to ask of, and have more example, of the Know and undisperied handwilling of Capitain Drugher may be procured.

I read and appearly your own Companys with sufficient and has I have not I ared to assure you in alongue of which you are so great a moule. I less you thing, become I do not wish yout be at any timble to respond in English if you should be me the very great how of assuring we at all. I have taken the liberty to instruct my publishers to send you a book of nime relating & surrout film in England. Jam. Jam Son. with propound raspect? your very line,
