Mons. E. Zola

Dear

I daresay I am taking a great liberty in addressing you, but pray forgive me if I am, & I know I shall be only one out of many thousands anxious to thank you, for what you have done in the cause of justice & truth. You have always & still been "a man above man" greatly admired for beautiful writings, but how much greater you are now in the eyes of the whole truth loving world it is impossible even to imagine. You have shown and proved yourself to be a man, not to be frightened by penalties, exile, or abuse, as long as you could bring to light, truth, & justice. for that unfortunate martyr Captain Greffier. You have doubtless been a great sufferer for the cause, but you will receive the blessing not only of the Greffier family but of all right thinking & truth loving men. Unfortunately I cannot put all that I would like to say & all that my heart feels, on paper, but, pray that God will guard you from all harm, and that you may be spared for many years to see the fruit of your good work, bringing freedom to Captain Dreyfus, happiness to his loving wife & family, and regaining the world's esteem for your country. Three names that will never be forgotten by me & doubted by many thousands of my countrymen (English) are Zola!!! Requart!!! & Dreyfus!!!

God bless & preserve you.

Frank. Faer's

Writing to you with the most joyful news of my beloved wife who now I meet after years and my heart & spirit know what true joy it is to have her back again How joyful that she is still as she was and my words and my thoughts to her messages is the evidence of it the more so as it follows having had such good as good as health, sleep, eating and other atmosphere full of vitality & strength. I feel it very a great pleasure and my best wish is that all success now go to her, since all my best wishes also for her pleasure and health to the best of her & the pleasure of my wife and myself. Please give my best regards to all and my very best regards to all
