The first of these is the fact that the system of the mind is not a simple thing, but a complex one, and that the mind is not a single entity, but a collection of many different parts, each of which has its own function, and which are all connected together in a way that allows them to work together as a single unit. This is the first of the many things that we must understand if we are to understand the mind. The second is the fact that the mind is not a thing, but a process, and that it is constantly changing and evolving.
 This is the second of the many things that we must understand if we are to understand the mind. The third is the fact that the mind is not a thing, but a process, and that it is constantly changing and evolving.
 This is the third of the many things
 to understand the mind. The fourth is the fact that the mind is not a
 constantly changing and evolving.
 This is the fourth of the many things
 to understand the mind. The fifth is the fact that the mind is not a
 constantly changing and evolving.
 This is the fifth of the many things
 to understand the mind. The sixth is the fact that the mind is not a
 constantly changing and evolving.
 This is the sixth of the many things
 to understand the mind. The seventh is the fact that the mind is not a
 constantly changing and evolving.
 This is the seventh of the many things that we must understand if
 eighth is the fact that the mind is not a thing, but a process, and that
 This is the eighth of the many things that we must understand if
 ninth is the fact that the mind is not a thing, but a process, and that
 This is the ninth of the many things that we must understand if
 tenth is the fact that the mind is not a thing, but a process, and that
 This is the tenth of the many things that we must understand if we are to understand the mind.
