Boston, November 6th 1830

Dear Sir,

I enclose to you the copy of a letter, which I have written to General Lafayette, and the object of which I presume you will not hesitate to approve & promote. Your great experience & success in historical pursuits, and your practical knowledge of the value & authentic materials, will enable you to form a prompt and just judgment of the importance of the request contained in that letter. May I hope that you will lend your aid to procure from the proper minister the permission desired?

Allow me to congratulate you, Sir, on the recent remarkable events in France, and on the distinguished & honorable part, which you have been called to act in a cause so glorious & so auspicious to the best interests of humanity. If the Old World regards the scene with surprise & doubt, the New World looks on with admiration and joy.

Your many and great duties will, I fear, deprive you of the power of rendering that service to the name of Washington, which you had anticipated in consenting to prepare the French edition of his writings, but I trust it will still receive your patronage, and come out under your superintendence.

Should permission be granted to examine the papers in the Archives, I shall make a short visit to Paris for that purpose.

I have the honor to be, Sir,
with great respect regards,
your friend
most ob. servt.

Jared Sparks

His Excellency,
M. Guizot.

P.S. - I am now preparing for the press, by order of Congress, the "Diplomatic Correspondence of the American Revolution" in eleven volumes. I hope to have the pleasure of sending you a complete copy in two or three months.
