Boston, Mass^{ts} Apr. 20th 1843

My dear Sir,

When I had the pleasure of seeing you in London, you expressed a wish to have a complete copy of the Life and of the Writings of Hamilton.

Two volumes of the Life have been published, and I have heretofore sent them both to you. I now send the first volume of the Writings, which is the only one that has been published.

The work seems to be delayed in the press, but

Whenever the other volumes shall be published, I shall take care to forward them to you. I am aware, that, in the multiplicity of your affairs, you have no leisure at present for the perusal of works of this sort, yet, as you expressed a desire to have these books, I shall not fail to fulfil my promise. I know that you entertain a high opinion of the talents & character of Hamilton. He ^{was} ~~is~~ among the ablest & most accomplished of the American statesmen.
