Dear Harriet Esq

It gave me great pleasure to receive your letter - as I value all those I can see so good as to write to me.

If you know the satisfaction it is I have every thing relating to her, you would not think the trouble travelling among your kindly tasks.

I cherish her memory with true affection & love, & if she had any faults I never knew them, & if she was not of handsome complexion & fine - I was probably I blame, for she was quick & peevish & such Sanctity & Fidelity! The last makes a somewhat blank in his life.

Shall we have the pleasure of seeing you this summer in England?
As I hope -

Our newspaper accounts of the Election's are not to be depended on they do not show what the right
