h
Huckle Hill - April 21. 1858.

Dear Madame Guizot.

Receiving very thanks, for your Graduate in Law, and the brochure of the Science of H. S. to L. S.
with some speech, I am extremely obliged.

The Elections are now finished,
There are about 300 Conventions, the D. P. D. has not counted and more than 200, (he told my husband 20) - but we think this satisfactory.

There are many speculations, and to what the Govt. will do,

Some day - living forward a Reform measure, but that could hardly be this Session, & it seems most probable they will do as little as possible, but Lord John says he will soon ascertain their intentions.

Hill St John has been established and I have sent for the business Loring told Miss Anne in London.

This said his Election cost him £10,000. paid by the Doff. Bedford.
But people enjoyed all his liberality
As he showed off to Cambridge.

Parliament
 but not for 18th
 expressed,
 long as Susan's
 E. H.
 & I have
 May's
 D. H.
 list of enclosed
 I have
 B. C.

Parliament meets on the 30th but not for business until the 1st of June owing to some formalities required, and unable to be performed on account of the Queen's State.

The Duke of Gloucester is ill, and I fear not likely to live many days longer.

The Duke of Devonshire paid me a visit yesterday, and begged to be remembered to you.

I am, Sir, &c. &c. Very truly yours,
J. Chamberlain

who have been staying in the neighbourhood, & the Palmist's come to Stanchbury Hill next Monday. London is quite forever for the present.

I hope when you write next, you will say you have not forgotten your promised visit to England.

It will give all your friends & so much pleasure.

Believe me dear Madame Guizot
Ever most sincerely & truly,

Alfred Russel
