Dear Madame Guizot.

I am afraid of travelling

I am too often, but it is a great pleasure to have from you, and to write, & these selfish notions overcome my scruples. For the last time left to me of the 1st annual leave, and for this reason I am sure you will forgive me.

I shall understand Madam Guizot the week has left must make to you, and often you think of it often with pain, I understand

He is holding down in politics, St. Johnstone's government according to circumstances - without any distinct policy - Messrs Carter & Co. have, and as long as that is successful will be in office

St. John will do nothing, St. Johnstone is on the point of leaving office, having let his hands - & St. Johnstone told me to day, the Conservative Party is in a serious position in this office.

St. Johnstone is very ill, he keeps his days in constant pain, which is only stillled by Anodynes & I fear it can't go on long so.

I had a visit from Dr. Chubbuck Saturday, & it was a great pleasure to talk of you, and our dear friends. The agreed is hoping you would not refuse to send the commission of the day at East Ridge, but some other of this season.

The Manchester exhibition is now open. My say the pictures are the least attractive part, & not very good.

Dr. & Mr. H. Kinnaird have returned to Liverpool, but I have not yet been able to go there. I am at the office of Cambridge but work at home.
H. K. H. made many kind inquiries after you. The Dr. of Manchester has left his house in London,

Dun. 18

and property to the Duke of Cambridge with the exception of diamonds & plate to Mr. Henry - I will have read the debate probably on the appearance of Mr. P. Taylor.
The Government denounced the Grant as ^{a point of} justice, not generosity on the part of the house, (referring to the exchange of Crown lands for the Civil list which takes place at the commencement of every reign, and the policy of which is now becoming a question.)

I have seen many balls & parties going on, but I have not felt any desire to go into society & have not been to any.

I have a box at the Italian Opera with Dr. Pao & his son have Maria, Jaki, Doro Jatzen & the Russian & indeed beautiful.

I have spent some time in the English House will not have interest now, I say it is not, for want of something better worth

visiting should be the only
last sentence
friendship.
