Marble Hill
Twickenham

S. W. July 23. 1858.

My dear Missian Frigate.

I had my pen in my hand
And was on the point Of writing to you, when Your letter was brought to me,
And for which I sincerely Thank you.

I have been intending to do so the time being for the books I have been so good as to send me, but my journey has been

So often have I pondered to Paris!
I have hope to be there the beginning of next week.
I think the whole to tell you a little of what is taking place here. I think arrangements are I believe nearly completed -
On Friday I suppose they will be announced
W. G. Harcourt & others

I have not but they find by looking to be I think rather an
at present he for the done he will with very all he can
I think
I believe therefore he
I do not have not joined him,

 but they promise support, My husband has accepted to be Secretary for Law, fulfils an arduous duty at present, but I hope it will be for the best, & soon soon he will undertake it with every anxiety I do all he can for the furtherance of the public service. He will therefore be in the Cabinet.
 I do not exactly know the rest of the appointments, It will be a very great pleasure to me to see you again.

This is a sad consequence of happy times. Nothing obliterated that I know my friends.

I have since this hurried letter than however I must of any thing occurred, likely to interest you before my departure I will write. I have read Robert Emmet's report of the Dress de la Convention which I like very much. I have also read it. Truly. Wm. P. C.

Do we not think that disappointment of last Christmas caused any ill effect on popularity of N. P. measures? But let other measures be practised later.
