S. W. March 9. 1858.

My dear Madame Guizot.

I have been greatly disappointed at having delayed all these days,

by the business matters from copying the Manuscripts.

I fully intend doing so, the first fair opportunity.

As for my own will not go to bed since the middle of April. I have been of London since the 1st of March.

As I hope when Friday comes we shall make a better appearance than ^{our} former satisfaction.

'The Times' gives no quarter.
Whitely & classically devoted to L. L. Johnston.

The Editor has been personally very kind to my husband, & Sydney Herbert Shadstone, Sir James, have all been to see him & express their good wishes.

The last day in June - our travellers - & the Edinburghians are beginning to take notice & showing him off perfectly with regard to our coming relations with France, but I feel extremely. I am glad to hear from France of this opinion, for it certainly will not be the fault of Mr. G. — Ed! we need not be afraid of France, because our Army and Navy is better conditioned in this Country, than it is at present.

That the pleasure of meeting Sir John Boscawen, at O. & S.
P. & S. a few days since, we have happily to make acquaintance with - knowing him to be a friend of France.
We have been making preparations to go to Colthe in London

These last days I think is some a pleasant occupation.

I have not been into society at all lately. having had a bad cold. but tomorrow we are going to dine at St. John's & Cambridge at St. James's. & to Diner in the City.

I hope I shall have the pleasure of seeing you for some time before I leave this. & believe me Dear Madame Guizot Ever most truly Yours.
