My dear Madame Guizot,

It is a long time since I have had the pleasure of hearing from you, and write in hopes of discovering some news of, and from you.

I suppose you are now established at Oak-Ridge and fear there is no chance of your being at Paris during this month, for

I purpose going there about the 18th to pass a short time with my son, who is coming from Belgium.

Here, there is nothing else Politics are a dead letter

You know at this time of course. Mr. Deby is confined at Kewbury with a lot of gout.

As soon as he is able

They are to move to Ostley in this neighbourhood,

The house
Dress - with the and my Success
This is
London
Lectures

make an to give the house
the 18th

The house also Mr. W. Wolfe dies - he has been staying with the Queen at Palermo and my husband has never succeeded him there.

This is a long journey from London! The Queen returns to England about 18th and I suppose will make another journey to Germany early next year.
The house of Anjou & the Sicilian have returned to Clarendon, and I hope to go there tomorrow -

The D. & Aff. of Clarendon are not expected to return to Swickham for a month, I heard lots of the Duke, at the Impression House at Salthouse - The Duke had gone to Palermo.

Have you read Mr. Carlyle's "Lectures on the Great?"

It is a remarkable piece.
Can I send it to you being it is written in some Frenchman's your best truly.

Wm. P. C.
