S. W. Chancery 28. 1859.

My dear Madame Guizot.

It is a long time since I have had the pleasure of hearing from you, I suppose by this time you are settled in Paris. I have very much offered myself as a visit in London this Spring. This season would much rejoice to see you - and give me the chance this time of being beforehand in securing the pleasure of having you at dinner in Peak place - and you know that must be quite a month of absence!

So to leave to stay on the 4.
One house has been severely depreciated, so we have been wondering to go down, and not having been well lately, have repaired at the short expressions from the fatigues of a London season.
The weather, & country has been delightful & things are as should be very interesting

Has the season been so early in France?

My husband comes here on Wed, Sat, & Sunday's these 3 days of holiday from the house of Commons, sometimes I go to dine in London.

On Wed I with Mr. G. B. De la Rue have had a party of the Opposition - Mr. B. St. John

Peck & Mr. G. Wellington &

Prince Royal's Son - We hope that there is some way chance of peace - what do you think of the prospects? I wish truly that Mr. D. & Mr. W. do every thing to insure it.

I am going to dine with the Malacandragi on Sat^d but my husband having the heavy obligations to perform for the whole to accompany her - that is always the rather awkward task.

forward its Reform Bill, With a few serious differences - the statement in the Liberator of this M^y. is I believe nearly correct. but it is a difficult task to make one limited talk correct, but I really believe there are certain people who will oppose it, even if it happened to be their power!
In the event of its being thrown out - W. D. Ashley will appeal to the Country.
Believe me dear Monsieur Guizot with the hope of hearing from you soon

Yours always & most truly
