London April 12. 1869.

My dear Madame Guizot.

I received with great pleasure your kind letter, and I wish to thank you for your gratitude in sending me the Etude.

Your criticisms, which bear very much pleased me,

may receive my best thanks;

It has been very kind of you to send me.

I am sure you will have at the

 The reputation seems to have taken the Miss's by surprise but this is difficult to understand since Dr. Deby has always said he intended to displease someone or other.

Here, War is considered imminent by long ones, but I remain little in hopes it may be avoided;

What is your opinion of the present state of Affairs?

Very low the kindred
