Brighton, November 23. 1857

My dear Madame Guizot.

I have just returned from London, and I found whilst there that C. D. Woodman has been ill - but is better, he is in Sussex & Lady Conroy told me she had written to his • Love to Conroy, but nothing about C. D. Woodman had replied himself - two lines in a hand hardly to be read,

Saying "that he was ill";
and I should have been far from well yet,

I'd. have answered your question sooner had I known how he was,

You say nothing about English fever, & how far they are likely to be realized - with regard to fever, but they seem at any rate to be thoroughly covered above,

Every one has seen the movement
has been interesting & admirable but I should have been told much more before he the Lady of the looking I should indeed be well
seems to be a
line the hand to the heart - living

was clear;
was far
from question
was at English
They are
- with but they take reason

Every one here will regret when the Movement comes How an interruption of amiable relations with France - but we are told that will not be long because in the case there.

Lady Granville is said looking I hear extremely ill, indeed her recovery at all seems to be a miracle, since she had diseases of the heart - liver & dropsy.

I do not have any reason, nor do I the Gov^t want it?
(Lambton & Co to the Camp) but it seems doubtful whether L. & Co. would make it? John.
Changes in the Ministry are talked of. L. & Co. John's going out than Peck's wants, but I don't know how truly. but it is difficult to imagine how so many conflicting opinions in one Gov^t can be reconciled!
Believe me dear Madame Guizot Ever yours most truly
Wm Pitt
