My dear Misses Guizot.

I have heard that your son is going to be married, and I must write and express to you my sincere congratulations.
I am glad to hear to have also taken part.

I have been always in hopes of coming to Paris, but being prevented by Dr. J. to have one of my daughters to Liverpool, I have spent much of my time there, &c

come to Eastern ~~States~~ in the course of the week or two.
It is astonishing what a warm climate that is, & I for difference from these parts, I have a great deal quite the unknown, & one has the windows open all day & even at night. I suppose you have not visited S. Devon, when you have been in England - the distance is so great - but the Country is beautiful small worth seeing.

You will going on to the Budget
Opposition
will move
first time
Gov. will they can
then we do that it is how they them -
S. Devon
division of
Gov.

You will have seen that I going on in our Part.

The Budget has caused great opposition - So right I think shall know - that the Treaty be first considered, which the Gov. will not agree to, if they can help it.

There are so many difficulties that it is not easy to overcome even the Gov. are to overcome them - On the other hand C. D. Deley is by no means desirous of overhauling the
Gov. & the Gov. be

By going to take office again.
There was a meeting of Government last week. L. O. Duley declared these these sentiments - as to I suppose he considered he has redeemed his pledge about that - that he is no longer tied down to any measure.
I am going to Middleton tomorrow for delay to see Lady Jersey.
The Governor rather in better spirits I have no news, the other is off. H. Remond has returned from their visits. We breakfasted with them the other day. to meet the Prince of Orange, &

Service there, they had a very pretty balls!

I. Kinkie has not been quite well - & I have these cold humors - will not improve he state.

Believe me dear Monsieur Goussier

Ever with sincere regards

Yours most truly
