Dear Misses Guizot,

It is so long since I have had the pleasure of hearing from you - that I must send this line - I have written twice - and the last time I wrote my Congratulations on the marriage of your Sister. I think it possible these letters may not have reached, as they were directed to your house in Paris.

There is not much political news to tell from this, everything that you see in the Revue.

The Monday next Parliament will meet & as all the Members will be in London I hope we shall be able to get up a little more active opposition to the Government and divide - than heretofore.

I do not think either the Reform

budget or

and the last day week

I am sure

he is strong

he thought

unusually

Constant

difficult to glow out

he has long

his last

We are going to stay in London next week, where perhaps I will be so good as to visit I think there was very chance of your being able to come also at this time.

The Rev. A. C. Hamilton says the expected had been the fullness next Saturday, which gives me great pleasure.

When we have received your European letter.

Yours truly
Alfred P. C.
