July 24. 1860.

My dear Madame Guizot,

I have had pleasure a few days since and the kin of your kind expressions, but that he is disappointed at not having from himself, for all the he cannot find many others he says he can find, & it is one of the only great pleasures left to him.

Perhaps you will kindly write. / he seems much the same as he was.

& I fear will become he better,

The Dr. thinks him gradually becoming weaker - He goes to Scotland today viz to make 4 day's journey to A. & D. O.

A thousand thanks for kindly remembering me & sending the 3^d vol of your Memoirs, I have not yet finished it, but have had great pleasure in reading many details.

He can still
I feel. It is to part take the 3^d year
Nothing can
than the G. O.
obliged to him
this business
Especially
which finish & I do not
musty paper
He can go
the Grand

We are still detained by Paul & I know I do not expect to be released till the 3^d week in August.
 Nothing can be done than the Govt. & they are obliged to interfere with their measures, & I find there especially has been reluctance in his permission & I know I do not think any party opposes them -
 We are going to support the Grand Jury Indictment,

The Radicals are very strongly but they do not count for much here of May's.

Ed. Palmerston's speech last night was thought imprudent & likely to produce all we all deplore - was - but it is certain this Cabinet takes a very different view of affairs, than at this time last June.

We have been to Orleans several times lately then have been to the Comments & Spectacles, which have all succeeded by well.

We desired them a few days since to meet J. J. of Cambridge & Dr. J. of Hockliffe.
The late St. James's & Dr. J.
Dr. J. came there.
The late Dr. J. of Hockliffe, has now completely lost his eye light.
The Dr. J. & J. J.
are gone to Hockliffe & Dr. J. of Hockliffe / & J. J.

Thence to Scotland - &
I think will end in London to stay at Sandringham till the end of September.

I do not have any horses,
Mr. Lumsden writes to go to Betchin the end of next month - & Mr. John Russell accompanying them.
I wish there was any chance than Harrison's Pigot
