Oct. 14. 1860

My dear Madame Guizot.

I know how grieved you will be to hear of the death of your dear friend Lord Beaconsfield, I only learn 't it has, and am much taken by. This is a loss which ^{we} all deplore and, because he has failed very much both in body & mind lately - I have not seen him very lately, for he was too ill that he could say more than his family will expect him dearly - he was related to me, being 1st Cousin, of my Mother's Sister.

I am still hoping to have the pleasure of seeing you, as I intended going to Paris next 11th Jan. - I was to have done so on the 5th but have been delaying about that time for a few days to New York - I shall then go - where I suppose we shall meet Mr. (or Mrs.)

her daughter.

We have all been surprised at the English's journey here and kind of surprised have been assigned for it - but we have perhaps not hit upon the right one after all!

What a sad state Italy will continue to be!
It seems rather paradoxical, the delinquency of the poor Italians, since we hear the prisons are fuller than ever. More robberies perpetrated than before.

Princess Louise of Hesse is here the intention of H. G. B. 1st Alain - he is a great looking & I believe is certainly amiable & well informed. The marriage is not to be till April or May,
- eight or ten months off.

He has not been any longer, has been to have gone on the 14th to H. G. B. to meet the D. G. B. of Annam.

The Appony is a P. H. G. but D. G. B. has been shot whilst at a battle with his friends, & by some heart the party is put off.

P. & Daphne Russell who are at Richmond just now, have been much troubled by an agent who took place last week in their house.
 Recently - having discovered that their father had come to them with a forged character from
 M. Desorgues & Harrison he is a German & was the a political spy,

I have to thank you for the
the time in St. Augustine as she had lost her Journal - which this person to have taken it I am afraid these provisions I must say will think these written for much too long a letter if you are Ever most truly yours.
