S. 66. March 12. 1864.

My dear Madame Guizot,

I have not had the pleasure of hearing from you - since M. de Rous. I hope you have been quite well.?

What great pleasure it would give me all, if you could manage to pay England a visit this summer!

The Duke of Cambridge has been pleasant with some photography. I will copy from his note to know what H. H. H. says with regard to it.

"Should you be so kind to send me the Rev. Guizot his portrait to which I have added his long portrait Photograph, to which he has added his signature -
"Let it be put in his place in his collection" and the other copy in another part have been obliged
She is for this attention.
I let both H. G. M. & Lady Jersey send some of these which you have good copies of them.

He can be sent only to Madame de there has been on them -
all invited
coming out in the Sept.
being the town
at the Palace
Academy.
With regard
there has been in the spirit
very important very little has done.

We are still staying here and only go to London for the Season on the 8th

There has been a great deal going on there - but I have refused all invitations - for it is very very interesting here in the East. We are however going to tomorrow to dine at the Palace, which is an order.

With regard to politics - there has nothing yet taken place in the House of Lords of any importance & I believe very little business has been done. The Govt. is very work, & I have told the Judicials we have not been turning it out - ^{the fact} they will have to depend on our support & I suppose we shall give it when it is possible -

This C^y, it is promised there on a question of Committee which I have been very embarrassed by.

I have seen the debate which took place the other C^y.
Our Foreign Policy
would be so displeasing to you, as it was to myself - for it showed the feeling in this country.
