Marble Hill - Limerick - I.R.

Oct. 7. 1866.

My dear Francis Guizot.

I am afraid you have quite forgotten me - it is so long long & time since I have had the pleasure of hearing from you.

I want to thank you very much for the 4. 5. 6. 7. of your Memoires, which I have been reading with great interest.

It has been much appreciated by every one here.

Stephane has now settled at Earl's Church - and the old parsonage is quite full?

He has just returned from London. My second daughter - Miss's marriage with Bennett's niece only son of St. Nicolas who was formerly a vicar at Beaufort & whom perhaps you may have known / is settled to the place -
This is a brilliant marriage.

but he is close to live in his place being 1st of the Religious Society of London

Mrs. Cassin
but he must be looked at with the City in some place
I hope we shall things not from London that he has

but he is clean & healthy to live in his profession, being 1st Attache at Berlin.

Preliminary labours are soon concluded here, the - Conservations - which let the heart this I suppose, such as the Auctions with the City one, ^{rested} have been in our power - it is to be hoped we shall achieve better things next.

From Richard Roberts death that he has long. It was Certainly the fatigues of Office which bear the immediate cause, has it been impossible to appear a better husband than when he first accepted it.

The Duke's son at Wick? who has been often - I. When I was much pleased with his own dignities - Please to be with the reception of P. Jennings return from India - & C. H.
Elgin's ascending home.

Believe me dear Madame your friend

Ever yours most truly

Wm Pitt.
