South Hill - N.P. 12. 1864.

My dear Madame Guizot.

I have been incessantly writing down my accounts and am but the principal ones have been - that I have had nothing to say which I thought worthy to interest you - I am afraid I have not much news at this moment, but I cannot any longer delay thanking you for your kind letter of the 14. P.S.
 Your remembrance I find which is very flattering to me, as it would be to any other - A

The friend whom we both valued so much - being dead, no longer with us, your recollection is doubly valuable and is a last link to one to whom I was so much attached.

Do not think the holograph of the letter of March 27 - 40. which you copy for me, should be kept "some time sent"! - Which should come to France this Autumn via that case that you sent?

a visit at the last day of last month to probably all
will be gone
we have seen
at present -
expressed,
Paris in fact
I shall have leaving from the book
so not having in November

that you will allow me to pay a visit at Laeken, but my daughter's business is not until the end of Sept.
I probably all the fine weather will be gone soon after -
We have sent August at present - and again is much improved. I hope to go to Paris in Jan? & then I shall have the pleasure of seeing you there.

The Duke & Mrs. d'Ormonde go next Monday to their place in Devonshire, but will be in both

being also,
from very valuable
to me
much
The
the letter
which should some sent? !
to France
in that case

They mean to return here for the winter as Mr. St. John is very unwell & there is the little chance of success had an accident two days & since - when riding he fell & broke his arm - but is doing well. -

All the Diplomats & I have left London for the Continent - Abercrombie is the Ambassador excepted, who are representing the S. Duke of Cambridge & the S. Duke.

I heard the other day from Mr. de Bismarck - He is going to be coming to England in a few days for a fortnight de la. M. de Blandin is now Chargé d'Affaires It does not seem that any new Minister is yet appointed.

We see M. de Hoffmann & others of the different Legations who come here to discuss with us occasionally.

The M. of Cambridge is still absent, in Germany, but returns in Aug. I will not fail to give him some help.

I think of sending an English book we have which has been recently published, I think perhaps may interest you. I hope you will not disapprove.

Believe me dear Madame
I am most truly
Yours. Miss P.
