My dear American Friend.

It is a long long time since I have heard from you - and I hope when you have time you will write from Oak Ridge, where I hope you are quite well.

Every one here is so much interested in the American visit this summer, and the weather was so fine.

The Exhibition does not close until the 1st of Sept.

I had the pleasure of seeing the

 & his son & daughter in London in June - the latter looking extremely well. I gave me great pleasure to see, after so long a separation, friends I know in former happy times, and now I have always & liked to know.
 We have been staying here since the London season, it has been agreeable, for
