Marble Hill
Wickenham

S. W. March 15. 1863.

My dear Monsieur Guizot.

I am afraid you will think I have taken a long time to fulfill the obligation you have been to do, but the delay has been unavoidable On my arrival here I was prevented leaving the house for several days with a bad cold, so that I was able to go to London. I found Lord Derby ill with the gout - and therefore only got his answer a few days since, which was not satisfactory, for he said he did not feel himself in a position to give a reply to the subject, as which I had consulted him, Lord Mansfield I am extremely sorry I have not been able to do so before, but he is staying in London having been lately much occupied with the arrangements for the Review of the late transactions I am afraid in his case also I can give no better answer & which is certainly not favourable to the Proc. de Courcelles' Candidature had he added assisted to it than himself

I wish I could do him justice
I must be so that explained Genl. Pitt has just returned from the office of the Success was in condition to be towards him
He has been to the latter Italy; he

D. John does certainly not hold these opinions of peace. Charles does as yet realize for these 2 countries, but their revolutionary doctrines are not yet cured for all that, also the speaker is very honest of Palt. (unfortunately) only tends to encourage the insurrection in Palt. & let the fire every country in its turn.

You know I am very anti-revolutionary.

Early in my long life I thank you & O

Thank you for your goodness in attending to her wishes. She has had her accident &

I don't know how I cannot visit but will do so herself when cured

She is able.

We are staying here till after Easter - do I have sent her to any parties in London - but there are many very old.

Believe me to be your affectionate friend.

Ever truly yours

Wm. P. W.
