Nov. 9. 1863

My dear Monsieur Guizot.

When I was in Paris the week before last. I called on the ^{1st} ^{of} ^{the} ^{city} ^{1st} ^{of} ^{the} ^{city} ^{of} ^{Paris} - hoping I might have either seen or heard something new there, but was disappointed.

We have come here to pass the winter - and do not return till the meeting of Paul & Eva.

We find this a charming place.
The scenery lovely & every thing still green, & gay with flowers, but we see the Alps covered with snow, which will probably reach his new City.

The Railway near the Fura is very convenient & beautiful. But hardly all the way at the very edge of the precipice - & it would be a dangerous road in winter - tho' probably we have already been over it.

We found the fide office H. Cline & Napier here, with whom we were delighted. She is so clever & agreeable - a great many Napier's Diplomates from various places come to pay their respects, which makes her salon extremely pleasant.
She had also with her

[illegible]

The Prince & the Duke de Bado de la Cour de Sicile.
The Prince has quite a Calvary of officers - some of whom are known to the Duke - & I hear P. & the Duke de Brienne, & the Prince, are coming to spend the winter - who few are probably acquainted with.
The Prince is in Paris having English on their way home.
The Duke of Cambridge. & the Duke of St Albans. & the Duke of the family & but no French Princes.
The Prince de Saxe is married and probably has English He is going to stay here till some day.

He dined with us today.

We have been very eager to hear some details of the opening of the Second Chamber - The Emperor's speech seems contradictory - & difficult to perceive the real meaning! Do you think war likely? Every country seems in so unsettled a state at this moment - that it will be fortunate when Europe it. Our present policy is certainly not the praiseworthy.

I have not yet seen Geneva but intend going this week to see it, & also some Neapolitan & English friends we have seen.

I hope my dear housewife friend

I have the pleasure of leaving you for a short time

May when you have a little time to give to me. I believe me

Ever truly yours,

Minna

With Best Wishes.

Very

Yours de la Landerie
