My dear business friend,

I thank you very much for having kindly sent me the 6th vol of your Memoirs.

I hope there is some chance of your coming to this country for the U. S. Fair's anniversary? I hope you will tell me so. I am sure I find many friends, tho' I know that you liked best - see also!
No longer have to greet you.

Your sincere and cordial regards

As yet, but many people's names arrived lately - neither is there much of interest going on in our House of P. & C. but I suppose later, the debates will become a little more exciting - Our Foreign policy is fruitful source - so many mistakes have been made. The Conference we have to take place on the 20th but it was expected a few days since - that it has not progressing favourably and therefore C. Casanova has to go to Paris to see the

Professor
in its country has had - told me he had London has had in the form of which must be embracing
I am sorry the has thought but He gives him
today - to show and my self
but of course
I am sorry

Professors. Have you any faith in its success? For no one here has - The Danish Minister told me he had not.

London has been a visitor in the form of General de, which must be caught to be embarrassing for the Ministers, I am sorry the Duke of Sutherland has thought well to remain here, He gives him to great distress today - to which my husband and myself have ministered, but of course expressed,
I am sorry however

the same
there is there in our
of Professor
all become
- New
of faithful mistakes
the Professor on both
wanted
- that it
- I am sorry
- I am sorry
- to see the

Lord Derby has not thought best to do the same - his commission

I suppose has been all powerful.

We are going tomorrow to dine with the Apponyi's - which will suit our Easter better.

On Saturday I had a very good time looking forward with pleasure to seeing H. W.

some more. I am told she is much better & that is good.

On my return from Paris

The Duchess of Cambridge has been found to be in the country.

She & Mr. Murray went to Windsor yesterday.

My husband had seen

Andreas of the R. of the Belgians the other day - he told me he was looking perfectly well

I said he was so.

I was told that some Frenchman is going to dine with the Commissioners - & I was opinion we should have to make another course.

For we dine with them on the 20th of next month

I think it is not very long.

I must close however Yours truly

To have nothing more interesting to tell you - but there is nothing at present.

Believe me ever truly yours.

Miss P. C.
