May 24. 1865.

My dear Madame Guizot,

I am sorry Lady Guizot did not perform her promise of sending me the Saturday Evening letter so lately - Shall I at times send it to Carl Eschen?

I hear she has arrived here, but I have not seen her yet.

I think with much pleasure of reading the G. P. Lib. of your Reviews, which you are so good as promise to send me - A thousand thanks.

lately (within the last few days) the arrangement has been made which will become it to L. Roulin the King's death - this is the case the Regent takes on himself.

Bismarck's friends think he is not so well.

I sent to Mr. Palmerston two days since - He said Mr. Palmerston was much better, but he has no idea of any kind - he gave no answer even to the letter of 11th of November.
Still his health is not so good
