June 11. 1846.

Dear Madame Guizot.

I have to thank the good lady for kind attentions in sending her love back. "Resolutions".

I have not yet commenced it, but expect to do so in a day or two - and am sure that I shall be much interested. London, at this time of year is not propitious to reading - as ^{to} thought - there are so many interruptions.

Politics at present occupy much attention - The Reform bill has passed a stage or two!

but it is difficult to say what will be its fate, tho' Commons Consent has voted it - a bad one in every way - Still its rejection within the pale of the Whigs -
- Radical Ministry - and the Liberal's see not various for the solution - tho' they admit it's short-comings and dangerous tendency.
(It leaves a poor balance for its acceptance!)
The Long party being come in last General Election

is a serious
loss of course,
to contend with minority
radical -
I understand
it - and that

is a minority of those 60... has of course great difficulties to contend with - tho' that minority has been considerably reduced - I have lately I understand is much against it - and I think it is his belief that Mr. Parnell would not have sanctioned such a bill.
 has been the policy of Messrs who desire given by the D. of Cambridge in course of Mr. Parnell's proceedings -

The morning is to take place tomorrow - The Queen is to be present but always in hurry.

As to the State of Confusion we speak of on the Continent - I indeed in all quarters?

I believe Austria for her determination not to change any of her possessions - and I think you will agree with me in this.

I hope your daughter's new quilt will will be kindly remember me to them Oh! I wish you were looking beautiful in this fine weather!

Wm. ! have tried to be in a hot house at this time of year!
Believe me then remain yours to be always & best loving and

Gratefully yours
