Dear Miss Anna Guizot,

I thank you very much for your kind remembrance in sending the book last week. It has not yet reached me, but I have told of its arrival at my house in London. I had already begun reading it with much interest when in Paris, & Mr. H. of Cambridge has asked me to lend it to him, so I will give him the volume I have, and keep that which I prize much as your gift.

Had the pleasure of leaving the office in Gallatin house on Tuesday. The intention to leave tomorrow, I fear he will have a rough crossing, for the wind has been very high the last three days - and today we have had a thunder storm.
I expect to stay in London on Monday.

The Opposition I say they are not anxious to turn out the Gov. this session but that Gladstone is the dis-establishment of the Irish Church will be a difficult task for them to accomplish, seeing there is both the consent of the Lords & Queen to be obtained, &c.

In case of failure they then suggest a vote of want
