Feb. 18. 68.

My dear Madame Guizot.

I have spent the books
I sent, were hardly worth your acceptance. I was here by a friend and acquaintance of my own, Lady Beauchamp (for I think you might like to see the little details about N^o (Lathbury) / the other by Mr Maria Beauchamp

one of our London beauties and this merit she may fairly lay claim to, in the absence of any she may want to see Southampton.

Lt. Ryalls at Pembroke Lodge has sending a book the other day, which he recommended by W. Service Post. on Ireland
I remember you know his father, but when I was going away Lt. Ryalls called to me and said
"but it has one fault,

then - I replied said it - but the fault? -
think even a
and that to be a
Eight Land
fault I think perhaps the
with give it a
also, I
it? Every day
I would like it but give me
to leave.

Then - I replied I will not send it - but what is the fault? "he did not think even a good government and that he did not go the right road" - On that fault I wish may be pardoned & perhaps Monsieur Guizot will give it absolute toleration also, Shall I send it? Every English book I would like to have it but give me much pleasure to have.

I hope the Electors will decidedly go in favour of the Liberals come to a 100 majority.
I had a visit a few days since from Mr. J. M. Stedman & the told me her husband was very dangerous as to the Yehouls - I am sorry for it.
Better do I wish for the others! My husband is not coming into this Paul's - he hopes the better day may come - & better Combination's ~~perhaps~~ - We think much of Mr. Stedman - whom I have for always thought

The Roberts are gone to Scotland last winter in Sept. to pass the winter here. We have got in some brightness in W. Schilling

(the Obit), who is very agreeable

& whose name like my friend.

The B. M. H. & Northumberland have lost her Sister to leave ed. The wife a daughter of L. H. B. DeLamare, who had for her very handsome father here.

The Rev of Cambridge is also there as known. I have been a few days ago there with Mr. Perry & P. Scott & the Rev of Rochester.

I have been many long years about here. and I shall be glad to be remembered to them How much we should rejoice to see you in England.

Oh I should be sorry to think it would deprive you of any of your present health &c trial to any one - crossing the Channel.

We have thousands of lives at present.

Believe me dear
human friend

Ever truly yours
