My dear Monsieur Guizot

The same post which brought your letter brought also the two last books you have kindly sent me -

I have read with great pleasure and interest M. L'Esprit and have long for Calais -

I had already remarked that the former was R. O.

Remembrance to a translation and that the English could as perfect and as natural as if it had been originally written in the language, and who ever has translated them has performed it with great success.

I hope you shall be able to go to Paris before the end of April if you can stay

Dear Madam

It will be a great pleasure to find you

you do not know

of our journey

Discontinued

My Mother and I

shall see them

We have been to go to Paris

but my husband

wishes to go to

at 4<sup>h</sup> to the

I am returning to Lord Fisher's

It will be a great disappointment not to find you there.

You do not mention anything of your friends & Mrs

Duchatel & the Galliers

How they are both and I

shall see them -

We have been intending to go to Paris before now, but my husband has been obliged to go to Scotland and I<sup>a</sup> to the late Lord translation

I could natural originally page.
translated
it
the
the end
from the day

Flattery and there is much business still to do.

I have been to Buckley today where I saw the case of Remondet M. Mangin & the case of M. Mincow - I think the latter - I probably the former must find it very tricky!
The M. Mincow is extremely pretty - but both the compared with the sister the beauty of Austria.

In answer to your question of Mr. Schickel - he does not act as leader to the late Genl. having disappeared latterly to meet their policy, & so naturally it developed upon Mr. Cairns - things do not look bright - after the Civil War you - it will be the English - & then something else.
The Regatta are at St. Andrew's Lodge I will not fail to deliver your message. Believe me dear Katherine friend ever truly yours
Wm. D. W.
