Jan. 22. 1869

My dear Monsieur Guizot

I have just been so kind as to send me a book. I have not yet examined it - but do know even this little for it was sent to our house in Lyons - & I expect it to be a gem - but I wish to write you not only to thank you - but also to express all

My best wishes for the New Year - and altho' tardily - I assure you I have very often thought of taking courage to write - since the first day it began,
but I am always so afraid of disturbing & troubling you with a letter.

I think you must be in

Paris by the 1st that I shall
by accident
"Saturday"
to but I
perhaps you will see, at
at Lincoln
It appears
to H. P. Quin
So well known & that it is
I don't think forgetful - you have

Paris by this time, & that I do so
 by addressing the
 "Saturday Review"
 to Carl G. Fisher - perhaps you will kindly tell me, where you are at present -

It happens to me that the "S. R. Review" is not so well written as it once & that it is better to send the "Palo Alto Gazette" - or any other paper name -

we are thinking of going to Paris for a short time in July or August, & it would be a great pleasure if we could look forward to the pleasure of seeing you?

I had a little visit from the Dr. of Cambridge a few days since who mentioned particularly the inconvenience to her she is gone down to stay in London.

all the Orleans Rivers are here now & in this neighbourhood -
he had the pleasure of dining a little time ago with the Duc de Nemours at Bruchay - he has arranged it with a great deal of taste - and nothing can look better, the pictures &c
his daughter's room

Chamorro & are extremely kindly - the Provost Morgan & Blanche - & his three daughters & now the Dye & Alencour
is very handsome & has very agreeable & good manners.

I have seen Ellen is going shortly to stay for a time at Lacomb.
It seems a convenient determination.

John & Anne

to Osborne,

next Sunday

the first time

have been the death of

Lacomb -

I feel a little

at the thought visit!

The Paper

at Lacomb

I see it for

father & I are going to Oban for two days next Sunday, this
 the first time I shall have been since the death of the Prince Consort - I think
 I feel a little nervous at the thought of the visit!

The Duke & Duchess are still at Fountains Lodge & are expecting the

 after it has been seen & has good success.
 success
 to stay (Cremorne),
 in the
 in

glad to hear to stay with them on the 30th

With again many thanks
for kindly remembrance, believe me Dear
Monsieur Guizot.

Ever sincerely Yours
