Brighton, March 9. 46.

My dear Misses Guizot,

I must I think say, I have to thank you for your goodness in sending me your pamphlets (letter to Mr. Gladstone), in every word of which we heartily agree.

I did not receive your letter until some time after the date, but was fortunate to get it at all, since postal communication had nearly ceased with France.

kind has happened since then - the terms of peace are indeed expressed, but how can it be helped and resisted? - we have a great deal of the treachery of Mr. Procter - Can it be true? many French persons are in this country but none known excepting the Off. of Galway - Mr. d'Armaillé to return to St. Petersburg, who is staying with his daughter the Off. of Glasgow -

Mr. d'Armaillé
like Mr. Procter
I hope the feelings of the want of displayed
Living -
We come here
since - my hope
why leave
branching -
Mr. d'Armaillé
to return to
St. Petersburg safe to go, but soon to return

Mr. Schickel is here who I met today - I hope she feels a little ashamed of the want of magnanimity displayed by her Emperor King.

She came here last week since - my husband having had a very severe attack of bronchitis.

Mr. de Galway is anxious to return to Paris when it is safe to go, but it does not seem so now. I am hoping

Miss
 of Place
 , but
 as
 have a great
 of
 it is
 French
 Spain

to go one day. Shall you be there this summer? It would be a great pleasure to have you again. I have been so long to see you again.
I hope that Fisher was not visited by the Professor, and that you have been returned safely to you again?

The Mexicans are very to part with their friends the French prisoners at Darnstadt, who they have seen much of - amongst them the son of the late President The Mexicans hope to go to Geneva.

What do you say to read

I think I should read to St. Louis - do you approve?

He are not 'liberal' enough to do so.

Don't know if you think we can truly grow.
