My dear Sir,

I must apologise to you for not having answer'd sooner your letter of the 10th May, but I have had so much

business in Parliament,

as well as in my office, that I have been unable to give any of my time to it -

I have requested
M. de Grouchy to present to you from me, the subject of Lady Russell.

The author of the life is Miss Perry, a lady of very considerable talents, with whom you may have been acquainted in Paris -

From her books, my own, & Lady Russell's letters which have printed.
From originals unrepublished taken from the Abbey, the life of Lady Russell from the time

A. G.

of her marriage with ^{may be traced} Lord Russell - of her previous marriage, & yet we know very little; her mother was a French lady of the name of Perigny who married the distant

Southampton -

At the time of preparing the materials for my book, I endeavored to ascertain whether the family of Lady Purcell's first husband

Lord Bampf

Lord Dunsford had any letters or notes respecting her, but my enquiries had no result -

I shall be happy to attempt to ascertain any point to which your enquiries may be directed - It is impossible I should not feel proud of being succeeded from so excellent & unambitious a heroine as Lady Steph. Emurian,

with great regard,
Your faithful servant
A. M. Guizot
