6 March 48

My dear Sir,

Five years ago, I
told you that as long as
you were a minister
you should neither see nor hear from me. I did not then hope your ministry would last so long;
I see it now disproved in
a way that makes every desert man in Europe a party in your affliction.

Yours

M. Guizot

much as I wish to cultivate your private friendship & am anxious as I am to see you
"échappé d'un tel nau-frage" - I should not have intruded upon
you so early, but that
peculiar circumstances
seem to me to render
it desirable, & indeed
important to the cause
of

of good or-
tion in
I should
soon as it
convenient

You
say, that
desires, but
share in the
of the Conser-
ty & that
a consideration
over the pres-

to culti=
uate
myous
I am
I am=
ed with
upon
but that
stances
under
indeed
the cause

of good order & civilization in Europe, that I should see you as soon as it may be
convenient to you.

You know, I dare
say, that I, quoique ⁱⁿ degré, have had some share in the confidence of the Conservative party & that I have had a considerable influence over the most powerful
organ

organ of conservative
opinion - the Quarterly by Review, and I
think it may be useful
to have some communication with you on
the direction that it
may take on the late
events.

I live here in a little village, (where I hope ^{to see} you) about 3 miles from Claremont - but I will gladly wait on you in town
when & where you please.
Believe me to be with great
trusting respect,
Yours
J. W. Croker.
