My dear Sir

I think the enclosed
from a young artist
in Paris to his mother who is a bonne in our family will ~~interest~~ & please you. Pray

when you have read it
put it back into its cover & seal it & send it to the post.

Can you tell me
any

any thing about La
pastor's Kicon. It seems to me a wonderful prophecy, & proves that all this has been
a conspiracy of old date. I have not been able to get the french
original - but I am
told it was published
under the title Kaschick

My address is as above

above - in
cottage; it
beautiful
tempt to & me; I
join with the person
I suppose that means
ago people
tell me to
not safe

at La
wonder
proves
been
old
the french
I am
lished Barbier
is as

cottage; whether this beautiful weather
tempts Mr. Croker
& me; & where Mr. de Joinville wait for the present disturber.
I assure you seriously
that a couple of years ago people used to -
tell me that it was
not safe to live so
close

close to the sea. What madmen & fools both English & French were
to be spending their money on these visions of war - but, alas, it is I fear, ⁱⁿ the nature of your people that a peaceful policy never can be popular. If the King
had gone to war with us,
he would have been now on the other side - but it would only have been a postponement of the catastrophe.

Ever yours
Whiston
