My dear

3/ Your time will suit
us - You will, if worse,
stay two or three days
with us - We shall have much to say to each other - We shall be much happy to see your son; & then you have been over here, &
made acquaintances with my ladies, I hope we shall have the pleasure M. Guizot. Z

of seeing your daughters also - I hope my grandsons may be at home when you come, as the boys
will amuse each other

Confidential

It has occurred to me that, if your stay amongst us is likely to be pro= longed, you will be désavoué as to busi= ness, & that you might like some literary de= = belement

délafement
or part in Reviews - re= ligious &
opinions,
are not far
ring - & I shall have an op= portunity of doing your own opinion
on ours on
contenances
I ought to
is de réque

delafement - such as taking or part in the quarter by Reviews - in the moral, re= ligious & even political opinions, you, I believe, are not far from concur= ring - & where you would have an opportunity of doing justice to your own opinions, and enlight= en ours on subjects of contempered literature.
I ought to mention that it is de rigueur that our con= tributors

tributors should accept the usual remunerations for their articles - Mr Lanning did so,
- so did Lord Dudley, with 50,000 a year. When I first began to contribute, I demurred to his practice, but I was forced to conform to the same rule as my colleagues. It is found necessary to the review & to more literary men it is a convenience without which they could not give us their time.

Believe me to be very dear
Sir, Very sincerely Yours
