My dear Sir

I have had not been so lately as well as to be a prime minister
the frequency of my
asking for favours
would not thank you
how however the favours will give you little trouble - it is only a
date. M. Thiers published quite lately
an

an address to the Bishops of the Lower Seine in which he professed rather conservative doctrines & above all respect for the Clergy saying that
"the Curé must be ~~our~~
"the antagonist of the
"democratic & common
"little Schoolmaster"
I read this in some French or English paper
but I cannot remember

which - you
have seen
have you
doubt re
date & to
it is to be
must have
quest to
which was
on which
dature
Pray ge
him as -

the letters
and in
sped rather
hastily
to need for saying that it be ~~can~~ t of the common
rester"
some
ish paper
remember

Shick - You probably have seen it & if you
have you will be
doubt recollect the
date & tell me where it is to be found. It must have been subsequent to the 27 May Shick was the day
on which his candi-
dature was announced

Pray give me a line as soon as you

you can - even if it be
to say that you can not assist me.

What a country you
are! Thiers elected in 4 departments - a
printer put in jail
for announcing the very name of M. de Favreville & Louis Buonaparte
elected for two departments! La vie!
