Alberbank
Gosperh
8 Sept 40.

My dear Sir,

There was a certain Nippolyte Bonnelier
who constituted himself Secretary to the Provisional Government of 1830
very much in the style of the late proceedings, & being destitute, with very little ceremony, from that office, he published an account of that Government
A. Guizot.

ment which we thought,
at the time, very curious,
tho' the man himself was a foolish & impudent inter-loper. The book was reviewed in the Quarterly about the time of its publication.
Now I find in the New-Republican
a letter from, I presume, the same M.
Bonnellier to M. Guizot
from

from which you had subsequent communications
tell me what
about
says that has given a volume
which he
with the Interior
are
of the tive that

from which it seems that you had had some subsequent communications with him. I say tell me what you know about him - Iaschescu says that the letter he has given is part of a voluminous dossier
which he had deposited with the Minister of the Interior.
Are there any points
of the Roum Petrosescu view that you think ought to be

be particularly noticed?
The travail that Mr. Lockhart has imposed on me is not political,
but historical, or rather literary - to give our readers an entertaining account of an interesting series, sans prejudice
to the political use
which we may make of it elsewhere. I suppose you know your report of the 1st Feb. 36 on Education - If you should not, I had it ^{as published in the abtp} here, & could send it to you. Yours ever Whisher
