My dear Sir

I have finished & sent to the press my light article on Jerome Paturot - and I have taken the liberty of desiring the printer to send a copy to your address, as soon as it is printed; Should I would beg of you to read & to correct any thing that

Yours
M. Guizot

You would wish to see attended - There is one place in which one of the Proprietary Government is designated as a "tête de fantaisie bonne pour décorer les devançures
du gouvernement"
(vol. 1. p. 73). This can not be La Martinière - nor bra-go, nor Dupont, who are all separately characterised. It does not seem to me to fit Ledru Rollin.

Whom

Whom then I fear of the article
I mean to
- but those allowance
I am not permeated the
I must end,
another com-
ther that we another rep-
or rose, or why or a
cannot go

When then can it mean?

I fear you will get the article with a great many printing errors
- but there you will make allowance for.

I am more & more convinced that this Republic must end, & speedily, in another convulsion, the first that will produce another Republic - led or lost, or a monarchy or a regency, I cannot guess, but as soon.

As soon as was the Dictatorial sword is sheathed we shall have another struggle in Paris - & then also, if not before, a continental war.

And to vote a constitution under such circumstances!

As soon as the L.R. is published I shall propose you a visit to this Marine.

Yours very dear Sir
Most truly
