West Bromley
9 Jan 49.

My dear Sir

Did you not expect
a week to pass
Burton's Parliamentary
Diary - one of the book sellers I deal with has sent me a catalogue
with a list (bound in leather) for 10th
shilling & if you want the book -
I

I would advise you
to let me to order it
for you - but if you have it at Tol Eicher
or in the Rue de L'Eglise

I am glad (not without a little spice of personal regret) that you
are likely to be soon restored to it. I inclose you a letter I have had from Lockhart who has paid a flying visit to Paris &

will inter-
haps meet Shengau^{or they} return it
want to
other friends
Shengau
Mr. Dumas
whether
a few weeks
me, then
him at the
just as he

in your letter it
if you
Lieber
the L'Epoque

about
person
to you
soon

I believe
have had
the
my visit
to

to Paris & which I think will interest you & perhaps Mrs de Mairville
or they have read it, Shengou, have read it,
return it to me as I want to show it to an other friend.

Shengou writes to M-Dunbar, ask him
whether he received a farewell letter from me, which I left for him at the Museum
just as he was going.
I should

I should be sorry that he had not received the expression of my
regard & good wishes.

When shall you be at liberty to pay us an other visit here.

Ever sincerely yours

W. Croker

When you have done
with my set of Barten
be so good as to have
for me
