Moncher come

You will no doubt have seen a pamphlet entitled a "Postscript &c" said to be written by Lord Byron Mersey, in which you, Louis Philippe, & the everlastly Reviewer are all abused (you, most of all) on the subject of the Month Jennies Match. I will not

M. Guizot.

Not tell you my impression of this pamphlet like I have heard you.
To ascertain point, you &
the Quarterly Review agree, & have, as against Lockhart this writer, or at least as against his most important allegations - common cause: I am therefore curious to know your opinion of the

the pamphlet
nature of
in idea
of an answer
you can see
all. It is Lockhart
pamphlet is this pamphlet
(c) the whole
Special to you: the time, one

the pamphlet: your captu-ration of his charges in that way you think of answering them, if you consider them at
all. It seems to be against Lockhart that the pamphlet is produced at this particular moment (of the elections) with some special hostility to you: tho', at the same time, one cannot but fear

per, from the present dire-position of your country men, that if the substantiating a charge against you of having poor
the highest ministry would be quite a feather in your cap.

Let me hear from you
as soon as you can
but a soon
