Mon cher ami

Your friend's notes will be too late - for this number at least - mon sieur est fait. but if the value of the work be equivalent to the time it has taken to prepare it - either you in Paris, or we here, may apply it to some other purpose - a brochure or a future article. But there is a point on which I entreat you to send me a precise answer. by return

of port if possible. Louis Blanc talks all this his history "de Six ans" of Albert, a leading committee at Lyons - founder of a journal there &c &c.
Is this the same Albert who was connected with La Republique & the secret societies in Paris, was finally the Albert Bur-rier of the Provisional Government - whose real name was Alexandre
Martin & who both Chenu & de la Rodde state to have been present, in company with Louis Blanc, in the harbour

the Provisional Government was backed. Now Louis Blanc, calls him "un pau-vre ouvrier mécanicien" who had never figured "parmi les notabilités démocratiques", who when he was elected was probably fighting obscurely on some distant barricade, & finally that Louis Blanc had never before seen him. (See

I cannot conceive why Louis Blanc should tell so ban on a contract. I am sure to be contradicted. - but he has told many other untruths

that both Chemu & Dele had he should be his taken; & that he, a writer in the Ré-forme, should never have seen Albert one of its managing committee.

I expect will not give you much trouble to clear up this point, which has a certain importance, any one connected with the Police or any of the Parquet employed in the trials could answer at once. Ever yours
J. B.
