Dear Mr. Guizot

I don't know whether you are aware how far I am admitted to a share in the secrets of your house - if you are you will guess that I have seen the table, the portfolio the basket & all the treasures which will rain upon you tomorrow.

I would fain contribute my mite ^{to} the outward ~~as well as the inward~~ marks of an affection which inwardly, I so truly & with all my heart share with those around you. But I feel equally without the light & the power to give any adequate expression to sentiments which I must only beg you to give me credit for.

One has little merit of friendship - if indeed there be a merit which is really involuntary - in wishing life & health, energy & success - all the good gifts that sustain & reward a man in an arduous course ~~to you~~. You are so much our shield against the dangers & evils, the paying is to peace

open peace & security if you were at our (which God forbid)
of affairs, the value all Europe would make none in our hopes & wishes for can make life deserting to you - how sustainable that & the abiding wonderful things accomplished by mankind. If mention your wish because, with tears

I must admit the vainness of any distant hopes which have been in their centre her living self, I mean - With her spirit, all the best hopes of those who have ever had the blessing of knowing her, are for ever connected.

God bless & preserve you all.
I hope you will find health strength & the heartiest welcome in any country.

I am ashamed to send you a little book of mine & a copy I have used myself.
~~one~~ I wrote for a new copy but it is not come. I can think of nothing else that approaches to the work of my own hands. If - in ^{M. L.}travelling you can conveniently find in this, I shall be very interested in only say that it

bearing ideas which helped me along laborious & difficult path. You know the
the thought of it
the little glass with me from B.
& never thought honoured as it if you will use

My husband will say something he is at the gate when he feels the

the things which center
- With
the best hopes ever had
- receiving her
- connected.

Wish you all good health
- welcome

I had you of mind &
- used myself
- copy
- come. I
- nothing else

find in this, I hope may interest you. I only say that it would many ideas which helped me along a tho laborious & discourag path. You know the va the thought of ideas.

The little glass traver with me from Bohemia & never thought to be honoured as it will if you will use it.

My husband will say something he is the quietest for when he feels the work

I can say for him that nothing can exceed the respect, admiration, interest & attachment with which he regards you & that is saying no little. He is no promi-cious admirer of these men & things. By a high & severe standard.
His best wishes accompany mine.

I have kept you too long Farewell dear Sir

I am always yours faithfully & gratefully yours J. Austin.
