Your younger pup is more powerful at present. The pup is so imposing ^{even naturally} implicitly ^{by} ~~along~~ ^{they} believe in it. But they find it out. Nothing but truth stands.

There remains however with nations as with individuals the great difficulty - the passions - There are states of mind or of temper in which truth cannot be seen - even facts are ~~not~~ seen, not looked at - and see the demons of the press attendant - les hommes;
- into this burning hearts they pour their infernal

[illegible]

it cannot give? What to aim at? What to acquiesce in? You young Leavenworths do not settle these points with your selves, so well, or so soon, as our old creatures & old ambition. Youth as it seems to me - is in a great degree of disquiet.

Your kind note has latched the eye of our impetuous into a fine young bird - I must cease to trouble you now. I make the graduated little bird tell me about you children & your dear little mother. She has a good heart & a just devotion to you, which makes me overlook some little absurdities -

I am always afraid your strength should break down under the load you have to bear - but God will preserve you to this troubled world - what could so ill serve you.

Poor Madame Coton &
I will pray for you, & you will not disdain her prayers though they be addressed to the Mother of Mercy.
Thank you for your kind expressions to myself - & to most cordial & to most an affectionate
