Dear Madame Guizot
I hope Mr. Guizot has a copy of the 2^d volume of S. S. which I should be much obliged by you to Frenchman to deliver it to me. I am & ever (for my small part) your infinite gratitude
Yours truly
J. Guizot

If any good sister's people can get accompanying me to Frouville & return with me till my husband could join me (in about a fortnight) I had entirely made up my mind to go.
My first & great inducement is - to see you & your - my next to lay in at the sea that sort of health for the winter which I can get no where else.
Every thing was arranged, our passports sent for,
& we intended to start as soon as the Victoria terrible is over. But a letter this morning arriving from C. de B. & B. I must confess that they are now in the first place they are compelled to leave

Frouville. I saw her account of
of the place and it appears I had continent say of us.

Now if, after all, I should defy these little privations & go to Tronville, afraid that either you are out, or that it does not suit you to receive my husband & me. What then? To dear Sir & Friend, I write just to request our separation

P.S. We intended to stay at Ipswich till the end of October.
