DEED
 LADY GORDON'S ADDRESS

ON THE PRESENTATION OF A SILVER BUGLE

To the 6th Surrey Rifle Volunteers,

ST ESHER, ON SATURDAY, AUGUST THE 18TH

Virginia Fletcher, Officers, and Men of the 6th Surrey Rifle Volunteers—

The ladies of Esher and the neighbourhood have desired me to present to you a Silver Bugle, subscribed for by them.

We earnestly hope that it may never sound, but for your training in those martial exercises by which you are qualifying yourselves to act as our defenders. But if the day should come when its notes must ring on a field of battle, I assure you (in the name of the subscribers to this bugle) how confident we feel, that it will stir up true and gallant hearts ready to shed their blood in defence of our country, of our freedom, and of the Queen, who so faithfully serves and so truly represents our happy constitution, that constitution which has fostered the spirit of unanimity and self reliance, which has once more called out the Volunteers of old England.

Already a moral triumph has been achieved; the frank assurances of renewed friendship lately made to our Government by the French Emperor, prove that the British nation has found the way to win his regard. Let us on no account relax in our efforts to deserve it.

It is not Defence, but Defiance, is your watchword; but should an enemy ever stand on these shores, and so Defence become Defiance, may this, our Bugle, be the first to sound the "Advance," and the last to sound the "Retreat."
