April 12. 1857.

My dear Mr. Guizot,

My friend Arthur Stanley placed in my hands your letter & has expressed for the first information as the cause of legislation in this country upon the subject of religions & education. I shall be very happy to give you any assistance in this matter from time to time if you should wish for information or official facts. That is all that I have to say. I have been to the various good schools & have been much made for it. But my object in now writing to you is that I am offering two very curious & interesting letters from the Earl of Arundel - 1661 to the Duke of Albemarle on the first tour of the Duke Roman Catholicism - one is very long.

Of course they have never been published - not perhaps seen by any literary person - you shall have them by the end of the
